

Tech Graduate Program

Kick-start your career at UBS

Your role:

Do you want to design and build best-in-class enterprise scale solutions using the latest technologies? If this sounds interesting take your next career step with UBS! You'll be working in a fast-paced international environment as part of one of our teams located in Krakow, supporting global business lines with IT solutions.

Your experience and skills:

- You have at least Bachelor's degree in tech studies or are in the final semester in your studies
- No professional experience needed
- Proficiency in at least one programming language (Java, Python, C#, C++...)
- Knowledge of networks, operating systems, data structures, and databases
- A proactive personality and a genuine interest in developing a career in the field of IT
- Excellent English skills

Program structure:

- Start: July/August 2024
- A 12-month comprehensive development program committed to your long-term success at UBS
- Introduction to financial markets
- Dive into real-world projects from day one
- Workshops enhancing your technical and professional skills
- Sessions with software engineers and IT experts covering: latest technologies, challenges of the industry and career planning sessions
- Ice-breaking and team-building workshops dedicated to all graduates across the world

Scan and apply now!

UBS